"The UK will support our trading partners to further the rights, freedoms and interests of citizens and the environment of one of humanity's greatest cultural and economic interests."

Under the terms of the accord, UK businesses will be able to use the passporting system for flights originating outside the European Union. The accord also gives a further 10 days' notice to new applicants. The second day of the annual "Uncut Northside" music festival in Brooklyn saw two very different performances as the Brooklyn-based band the Verve and the Black Keys played a joint double bill, covering songs from their new album We're Not Dead Yet. The result was "Dirty," their first single from the album since 2013's We're All Still Here and included on the Verve's most recent album, A Place on the River Road.. "Today's agreement with the EU is a historic occasion," said Exiting the EU Minister Andrea Leadsom.. The UK will join the Convention on Conforming Standard Civil Aviation Measures, the UK Secretary of State for Exiting the EU has said..
